

The Network Manager is responsible for agreeing and monitoring procedures for ensuring the security of the work, information, and data files under the homeworker's control.